THE WHITE HOUSE

Dear Howard:

Congratulations! The President and the country could not be more fortunate to have you serving in their behalf. Thanks for taking on this new assignment. With you aboard the President has a great shot at a productive last two years. There is little we may be able to do to help, but if you need anything, we're behind you 100%!

As an aside, I want to thank you for a great idea you gave to the appliance industry in 1981. You may remember that Harrison Brown, Harold Almond, and I (we're all range manufacturers in Cleveland) visited you in Huntsville to talk about energy legislation for appliances. You suggested we establish fair standards. Since that meeting we have been working toward that end. You, I am sure, are aware that we now have legislation pending. We thank you for your advice in our time of need.

GOOD LUCK! The whole country is pulling for you!

Best regards,

J. Hoyle Rymer,
President

Dear Senator Baker,

Congratulations on your appointment. Tennessee and America's pride are now on the line and I'm sure you will do an excellent job. If I or any of the Tennessee J.C.I. Senate can do anything to help you, please let us know.

I do need your help. I would like to go to work for the Fm HA in Tennessee and would appreciate your letter of recommendation to State Director Johnny Crow. - I have received rating (95-100) and am on federal register. I am enclosing resume for you to review.

Stop by to visit when you are in West Tennessee and let us know if we can help you.

Thank you

Jim Henshaw

My dear Senator and exalted friend,

Much has happened since we last met at the Slocumb residence in Newport, Rhode Island, and as I mentioned to you then "you are good for our country in whatever capacity."

Your response to the President's call is both a magnificent example of self-sacrifice and dedication worthy of Nathan Hale.

In my limited way I have served the presidency, ever experiencing a sense of fellowship and comradeship with luminaries like yourself who persevere in the preservation of our republic.

You have my heartfelt good wishes, confident that you will help sustain the Reagan presidency and add a new dimension to America's role in this troubled world.

Dear Senator:

I have delayed writing this letter of congratulations as I viewed your appointment as Chief of Staff to the President with mixed emotions.

As a citizen, I am delighted that the President has had the wisdom to make such a superb choice. In my recent dealings with you, I have gained even greater respect for you as an individual and I am convinced that our country is well served by having you in your current post.

I am personally upset because I was looking forward to supporting and working for you as a candidate for the Presidency. For the reasons I have enumerated above, I can think of no man more deserving of that job. I just want you to know that should you ever make such a decision, please call upon me at the first instant.

Again, my sincerest congratulations and best wishes for success in this most important position.

Washington, D.C. 20500

Dear Senator Baker:

Permit me to extend my most sincere congratulations to you on your appointment to and acceptance of the position of Chief of Staff at the White House. You are truly offering to serve at a time of need.

As I read of the developments happening in Washington in the European wireless file here at the Embassy in Prague, it is clear that your long service in the Congress, as Senate Majority Leader, and as a close friend of the President since 1966, will prove a tremendous asset to the President at this critical time and during the 1987-88 period of his presidency.

At this writing, I am reminded of the support you always provided to the Republican Heritage Groups activity at the RNC while I was the Executive Director.

Your continued dedication to the nation is admirable and greatly appreciated by many Americans.

Very sincerely,

Dear Senator Baker

On behalf of the Ambassadors of the ASEAN Embassies in Washington, and on my own behalf, I write to congratulate you on your appointment as Chief of Staff to the President. President Reagan could not have made a better or more popular choice. Knowing your distinguished career in the House of Representatives and in the Senate, we are confident that you will succeed in helping President Reagan to recapture the initiative in setting the political agenda of the nation and in restoring the trust and confidence of the American people in their government. The threat of protectionist trade legislation is a source of great concern to the ASEAN countries. My ASEAN colleagues and I are confident that with your help, President Reagan will succeed in preventing Congress from enacting such legislation which would have a disastrous impact on world trade and on the United States itself.

With best wishes,

Yours sincerely

DEAR HOWARD,

IT HAS BEEN AWHILE SINCE WE LAST TALKED. I WANT TO TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY TO CONGRATULATE YOU ON TAKING THE JOB TO HELP OUR PRESIDENT. I, AMONG OTHERS, CONSIDER THIS A BIT OF OLD FASHION PATRIOTISM ON YOUR PART. APPARENTLY, THE MEDIA HAS GOOD THINGS TO SAY ABOUT IT AS WELL--AMAZING!

HOWEVER, TO TAKE YOURSELF OUT OF CONTENTION AS A PRESIDENTIAL CANDIDATE WOULD ONLY SERVE THE LIBERALS IN THIS WORLD. NO ONE, INCLUDING THEM, CAN REALLY AFFORD THAT. FRANKLY, I DON'T KNOW THAT ANYONE OTHER THAN YOU HAS A CHANCE AT KEEPING A REPUBLICAN ADMINISTRATION AFTER 1988.

UNFORTUNATELY, THE VICE PRESIDENCY IN THIS COUNTRY HAS BECOME A SORT OF STAND-BY HEIR POSITION. THE VICE PRESIDENT IN FUTURE ADMINISTRATIONS SHOULD REALLY BE A CHIEF OF STAFF TO THE CHIEF EXECUTIVE. IT MIGHT BE APPROPRIATE TO INSTILL THAT CONCEPT NOW AND HAVE YOU BE THE FIRST TO MAKE SUCH A TRANSITION.

Dear Senator Baker:

Serena and I just wanted to congratulate you for your statesmanship in accepting such a crucially important mission and to send you our best wishes.

Your appointment is the best news for this country that we have heard in a very long time, and we are grateful to you for the equal measures of wisdom and hard work which you will be bringing to the job. If I or this University can ever be of any help, other than by cheering you on from the sidelines, I trust that you will let me know.

Our warmest wishes to you and Mrs. Baker and best regards,

Sincerely,

Dear Howard:

Congratulations upon your appointment to White House chief of staff! I'm sure I speak for all Tennesseans when I say that we all take pride in such an accomplishment of someone from our "Great State." All of us also owe you a great debt of gratitude for your personal sacrifice in delaying your own Presidential aspirations in order to be of service to our country in this special way.

Please call on me if there is ever any way I can be of service to you.

Dear Mr. Baker:

My wife Ruth and I want to express our thanks to you and Mrs. Baker for returning to Washington at this time of media-credibility-crises.

Your appointment as Chief of Staff has won high praise from leaders in government

your understanding of domestic and foreign policy issues
your excellent judgment your unquestioned integrity your unequalled abilities

We know you will provide new strength and support to our strong, seasoned and sound-minded President, who has turned our country around to its rightful place of leadership at home and abroad with the principles and precepts of the Reagan Revolution.

God bless you and Mrs. Baker in this new challenge and responsibility.

Cordially yours,

Morris J Livingston
